

RESTORING GODLY WOMAN TO THE ROLE OF AMERICA'S MOTHERS.

Proverbs 31:30. "But a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised,"

If we are to expect the blessings from God, then we need to have godly mothers raising godly children. False praise is often given to those mothers who abdicate their responsibilities to the family to garner their own advancement in life. It is the ungodly that wish mothers to pursue other things in life. Side note: this is common today in that people are constantly distracting godly people into thinking that true meaning and cause of praise is found in self-aggrandizement. Mothers have not been immune to this deceit of the world.

We need to restore the sacred position of parenthood. This would apply to both fathers as well as mothers. The Bible says that it is the woman who fears the Lord that is praised. The praise comes from God. Unfortunately, there are those who prefer the temporary praise of man to the eternal praise of God. Consider the following proverb as written by King Lemuel in his inspired description of a godly wife and mother. Consider for yourself, would you want a godly mother or a worldly mother?

Proverbs 31:1-31

1 The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows? 3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings. 4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink: 5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. 6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts. 7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. 8 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. 9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. 12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. 13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. 16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. 17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. 18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. 21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. 22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. 23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. 25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. 26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. 27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. 28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised. 31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Consider this hand rocking the cradle.
It would not just rule the world, but today... it would rock the world!
